MARCH 2023 NEWSLETTER

Celebrating Women in Construction

National Women in Construction Week was March 5th-11th, and throughout the week we proudly highlighted some of the women employee-owners of Achen-Gardner. We appreciate all the hard-working women in our industry.

“Why do you love the construction industry?”

“ Many have helped me learn new things and hopefully I’ll be able to do the same for others as I grow in my current role. ”

Victoria Morin

Project Engineer

A talented Project Engineer, Victoria has been in the industry for seven months. When asked her favorite part about working in the construction industry is, she replied: “The people. Everyone I’ve encountered are happy to be in this industry; they’re positive, fun to work around, and always ready to help me understand things.”

“ Watching Achen-Gardner grow. Growth means opportunity, job stability, and financial gain for all ESOP employee-owners. ”

Richelle Soto

Payroll Administrator/Office Manager

Richelle has been in the construction industry for five years and when asked her favorite part about working in the construction industry is, she replied: “The construction industry is quite unique. Working in the Accounting Department, we see the numbers/dollars. I love learning how each department operates. You then have a better understanding of the business and are able to see the bigger picture/possibilities.”

“ The team I work with. They teach me so much and help me to improve both inside and outside of work. ”

Abby Goode

Project Manager

Being in the construction industry for ten years, Abby brings immense value to Achen Gardner as a Project Manager. When asked what her favorite part is about working in the construction industry, Abby said it’s the fact that “no two days are the same, and there is always something new to learn and do.”

“ BS’ing with the guys I work for and with everyday. If they were not as cool as they are, my job would be boring... Thanks for keeping it fun guys. ”

Stacy McGeehon

CDL Driver/Water Truck, Pipeline Crew

Stacy has been in the construction industry for 17 years, and when asked what her favorite part about working in the construction industry is, she replied: “Learning and the great outdoors. Learning - I still learn something new every day, whether it is a new word in Spanish or a part of the job. The great outdoors - Arizona is beautiful, and I am blessed to see what she offers every day.”

NSPE Presentation

Carefree Water Consolidation CMAR Project

Our project team presented at the Town of Carefree Council Chambers on March 28th to a group of National Society of Professional Engineers (NSPE) members to explain work happening on the Tom Darlington Water Storage Reservoir. After the presentation, everyone was invited to take a guided site visit of the reservoir. The tank is nearly complete. It has been backfilled and we have started constructing the walls for the electrical components. Visit our website for more project information.
